

Kristen Lewis Hayes

Of Counsel

New Orleans | 504.566.8630 | klhayes@bakerdonelson.com

Kristen Hayes concentrates her practice in construction litigation, admiralty and maritime litigation, as well as insurance coverage and personal injury and property damage claim defense.

Ms. Hayes has experience representing contractors and subcontractors in disputes involving claims of breach of contract, change orders, defective work, delay, disruption, inefficiency, unfair trade practices, and other construction-related claims before courts and arbitration panels.

Ms. Hayes also represents clients in general business and insurance-related litigation matters, including insurance coverage disputes, and defense of personal injury and property damage claims.

During law school, she advocated for low-wage workers as a student attorney for the Workplace Justice Clinic at Loyola University New Orleans College of Law.

Representative Matters
