

Jennifer G. Hall

Of Counsel

Jackson | 601.351.2483 | jhall@bakerdonelson.com

Jennifer G. Hall practices in the labor and employment area as both a trial lawyer and consultant for several of the Jackson office's premier clients.

Licensed in both Mississippi and Tennessee, Jennifer assists clients in areas including single and multi-plaintiff discrimination defense, enforcement actions, employee classification issues, retaliation defense, antitrust issues in human resources, noncompetition agreement enforcement, bad faith denial of workers' compensation claims, state employment law issues, and wage and hour matters, including collective actions and audits. She frequently represents employers before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), Department of Labor (DOL), and Mississippi Department of Employment Security (MDES), and in federal courts. Jennifer is a frequent speaker and author on employment issues.

She takes an active role in the Mississippi Bar Association, having chaired the Women in the Profession Committee and the Labor and Employment Section Executive Committee, as well as having served as president of the Young Lawyers Division in 2011 – 2012. For her service to the Bar, Jennifer received the 2022 Distinguished Service Award, and she has been named a Fellow of the Mississippi Bar Foundation. Inside the Firm, she serves on the Pro Bono and Recruiting Committees and has been a recipient of the Jackson office's pro bono award.

Representative Matters

- Obtained summary judgment on an Americans with Disabilities Act failure to accommodate claim for a hotel management company.
- Obtained a dismissal of Section 1981 and Section 1983 claims and punitive damages demand under Title VII for a municipal airport authority.
- Obtained a dismissal for three individual defendants, former and current airport authority employees, based upon qualified immunity under Section 1981 and Section 1983 and lack of individual liability under Title VII.
- Obtained a jury trial defense verdict in favor of an airport authority sued for alleged discrimination based upon failure to promote.
- Obtained a jury trial defense verdict on behalf of a medical device company accused of discrimination claims.
- Obtained summary judgment against the EEOC in an enforcement action against a home health agency; affirmed in part on appeal to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals after oral argument.
- Successfully appealed to the Mississippi Court of Appeals on the MDES's misclassification of independent contractors of a paramedical company as employees.
- Won summary judgment on pro se plaintiff's race discrimination case against an automotive parts manufacturer.
- Received summary judgment in favor of a nursing home on claims of retaliation.
- Obtained summary judgment for a national restaurant operator against claims of sexual harassment based upon Ellerth/Faragher affirmative defense; successfully affirmed on appeal to Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.
- Won summary judgment for a federal contractor on pro se plaintiff's claim of race discrimination and retaliation.

- Obtained summary judgment for a life insurance company in an ERISA challenge to the company's denial of long-term disability benefits.
- Obtained dismissal of lawsuit based upon the arbitration agreement between an oil company and employee; employee failed to pursue arbitration after court dismissal.
- Won dismissal of lawsuit against a facilities operations and management company based upon pro se plaintiff's failure to timely serve the complaint.
- Received summary judgment for a casino in an employee's disability discrimination case.
- Obtained summary judgment for a regional health center in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Mississippi in which the plaintiff asserted claims against the hospital and its administrator for wrongful termination in retaliation for the exercise of protected speech, as well as various state law claims.
- Secured summary judgment based on the plaintiff's failure to comply with the procedural requirements of the Mississippi Tort Claims Act.
- Defended a poultry processor against race, national origin, and gender discrimination, retaliation, and harassment claims brought by 11 individual plaintiffs and a pattern and practice claim brought by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission seeking to recover equitable relief, compensatory damages, and punitive damages on behalf of more than 100 class members that ultimately resulted in a favorable settlement for the client.
- Obtained summary judgment on behalf of a restaurant franchise operator against allegations of discrimination brought by minorities who were asked to leave the restaurant for disruptive behavior and rude treatment of their minority server. The court held that the restaurant had legitimate, nondiscriminatory reasons to ask the plaintiffs to leave the restaurant.
