James H. Levine, a member of Baker Donelson's Board of Directors, has extensive experience in health care financing and in the representation of banks, other financial institutions and borrowers in HUD-insured loan transactions for multifamily and senior housing facilities.

Working out of the Chattanooga and Washington, D.C. offices, Jim practices in the areas of commercial lending, mergers and acquisitions, business organizations and commercial contracts, and has been counsel in hundreds of HUD-insured loans in the senior housing industry totaling approximately $3 billion in more than 40 states.

Jim has done extensive work on behalf of the American Bar Association and the Mortgage Bankers Association in providing comments to HUD's new multifamily and health care form loan documents, closing guides and opinion letters. Jim has wide-ranging experience in issues related to limited liability companies and has been a member of the Tennessee Bar Association's committee charged with modernizing Tennessee business organization laws. He also has extensive experience in the preparation and negotiation of commercial finance and corporate legal opinions.

Representative Matters

- Led representation of a client as lender's counsel in $19.5 million portfolio of HUD Section 232/223(f) HUD loans for five health care facilities located in South Carolina, North Carolina and Georgia.
- Represented a health care financing firm in a 10-site, $82 million skilled nursing facility portfolio of HUD Section 232/223(f) mortgage loans in Texas. This complex deal involved a number of challenges because the facilities were all leased under a master lease to a third-party operator and were subject to accounts receivable financing in addition to the HUD mortgage loans.
- Represented a client as borrower's counsel in $100.2 million portfolio of HUD Section 232/223(f) HUD loans for nine skilled nursing facilities located in Indiana, Michigan, Ohio and Kentucky. These loans were unique in that several of the facilities are subleased to county-owned hospitals in Indiana in order to take advantage of enhanced Medicaid reimbursement and the facilities were all owned by subsidiaries of a health care REIT.
- Represented a lending client in $55.3 million HUD Section 232/223(f) financing of four Illinois supportive living facilities. The four facilities were subject to a master lease and also had separate accounts receivable financing.
- Representation of a client in $11.8 million HUD Section 232/223(f) financing of two Oregon retirement centers. The two facilities were subject to a master lease with a third-party operator.
- Representation of a client in $12.7 million HUD Section 232/241(a)) financing for the construction of an addition to an Indiana skilled nursing facility.
- Representation of a client in $13.1 million HUD Section 232/223(f) financing of two Virginia skilled nursing facilities. The two facilities were subject to a master lease.
- Successfully closed HUD loan project changes of ownership for two large multifamily apartment communities on behalf of a major commercial real estate finance company. The properties were purchased for $129 million.

- Served as lender's counsel in a transaction to reduce the interest rate on a $129.9 million HUD Section 242 loan which financed a hospital in Puerto Rico.
- Represented a commercial lending client as lender's counsel in the closings of a change in the licensed operators of two Delaware nursing homes serving as collateral for two HUD-insured loans. Baker Donelson previously represented the client in the original HUD loan closings, which totaled $43 million, and in the assignments of both HUD loans to new borrowers.
- Represented a leading commercial real estate finance company as lender's counsel in the closing of a $19.7 million HUD-insured refinancing loan for a 140-bed long term care facility located in Pennsylvania.
- Represented a commercial real estate finance company as lender's counsel in the closing of a $10.4 million HUD-insured refinancing loan for a long term care nursing and rehabilitation facility located in Ohio.
- Served as lender's counsel in the closing of a change of operator transaction for a Maryland nursing home subject to a $14.7 million HUD-insured loan.
- Represented a specialty lender as lender's counsel in the closing of a $10.9 million HUD-insured refinancing loan for a 135-bed skilled nursing facility located in Massachusetts.
- Represented a specialty lender as lender's counsel in the closing of a $17.7 million HUD-insured refinancing loan for a 72-bed comprehensive care facility located in Indiana.
- Served as lender's counsel in the closing of the assumptions of two HUD-insured loans for two assisted living facilities in Utah.
- Served as lender's counsel in the simultaneous closing of two HUD-insured mortgage loans for $5.2 million and $6.7 million to refinance debt on two skilled nursing facilities located in Illinois.
- Represented as lender's counsel in the closing of an assignment and assumption of a $5.2 million HUD-insured mortgage loan secured by a supportive living facility in Illinois. The transaction involved unwinding an existing ground lease with the county housing authority (whose affiliate was also the seller) and converting the facility to for-profit ownership.
- Represented a commercial real estate finance company in closing a $33.4-million HUD-insured mortgage loan to refinance a Connecticut skilled nursing facility and coordinated closing amid a HUD staffing shortage during the government shutdown.
