

Sabrina Marquez

Associate

Baltimore | 410.862.1091 | smarquez@bakerdonelson.com

Sabrina Marquez focuses her practice on litigation matters in various industries.

Sabrina Marquez is an associate in Baker Donelson's Baltimore office and a member of the Advocacy Department. Ms. Marquez's experience includes defending both corporations and individuals in government investigations, enforcement actions, and class action lawsuits.

While attending law school, Ms. Marquez practiced as a student attorney in the Mental Health Law Clinic of the University of Baltimore Law School where she represented clients in involuntary commitment hearings at Sheppard Pratt psychiatric hospital in Baltimore.

Before joining Baker Donelson, Ms. Marquez served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Douglas R. M. Nazarian in the Court of Special Appeals of Maryland.

Representative Matters

- Assisted in the defense of a major domestic automotive manufacturer in a putative class action in the Central District of California involving allegations of defective exhaust manifolds in best-selling trucks. Participated in drafting the motion to dismiss, which was granted in its entirety.
- Assisted in the defense of a major domestic automotive manufacturer in a putative class action in the Eastern District of Michigan involving allegations of defective shifter bushings in a series of vehicles. Participated in drafting the motion to dismiss, which was granted in its entirety on prudential mootness grounds.
- Assisted in the defense of skilled nursing facilities in connection with False Claims Act investigations led by the Department of Justice in the Western District of Kentucky.
- Assisted in the defense of municipalities concerning constitutional claims including 42 U.S.C. 1983 actions.

Professional Honors & Activities

- Selected to Maryland Rising Stars (2025)

Publications

- "Shifting Priorities: DOJ's New Approach to White Collar Enforcement," republished in The Legal Intelligencer (May 2025)
- "U.S. Supreme Court Declares SEC's Action for Civil Money Penalties Unconstitutional, Upending Administrative Enforcement Powers" (July 2024)
- "Soothing Range Anxiety: Tips for EV Manufacturers and Sellers" (July 2023)
- "Private Equity in the Crosshairs: Administration Continues to Raise Questions Over Role of Private Equity in Long Term Care," republished March 13, 2023, in McKnight's Long-Term Care News (February 2023)
- "Protected Activity? Think Again.," republished in the Daily Business Review (October 2022)
- "Cuties: The French Film That Shocked America's Conscience," University of Baltimore Law Review (March 2021)
- "TikTok, Viral Video App or National Security Threat?," University of Baltimore Law Review (October 2020)

Education

- University of Baltimore School of Law, J.D., 2022, summa cum laude
 - Production Editor, University of Baltimore Law Review
- University of Maryland, B.A., 2019, magna cum laude

Admissions

- Maryland, 2022
- U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland