Jo Neuman concentrates her practice in construction law.

As a member of the Construction Group, Ms. Neuman's practice focuses on construction litigation, representing contractors and owners in disputes involving claims for breach of contract, defective work, project delays, unfair trade practices, and other construction-related claims.

Prior to joining Baker Donelson, Ms. Neuman served as an administrative law clerk to the Honorable Nannette Jolivet Brown, Chief Judge, U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Louisiana, and as a term law clerk to the Honorable Michael J. Juneau, U.S. District Court, Western District of Louisiana. Prior to joining the federal judiciary, she also served as a term law clerk to the Honorable Martha Ann O'Neal and the Honorable C. Kerry Anderson, Thirty-Sixth Judicial District Court.

While in law school, Ms. Neuman served as a judicial extern in Justice Greg Guidry's Chambers in the Louisiana Supreme Court and Judge Shelly Dick's Chambers in the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Louisiana.
