Jeff Pomeroy, co-chair of the Real Estate Group, focuses his practice on development, acquisition, disposition, leasing, management and financing of commercial and mixed-use real estate projects.

Mr. Pomeroy focuses his own practice on retail, office, hospitality, multi-family, and mixed-use real estate projects. He regularly handles all phases of purchase, sale, lease and loan transactions. As former general counsel to a full-service real estate development company, he has extensive commercial leasing experience. He regularly advises clients on issues relating to the development, construction, financing, leasing, management, operation, and disposition of a full array of commercial real estate assets, including issues related to joint venture structure and formation, project entitlements and development incentives.

Prior to joining Baker Donelson, Mr. Pomeroy was general counsel for a full-service real estate company that specializes in the development and operation for private and institutional investors of large-format lifestyle and mixed-use projects across the country.
