

Robin Barber*

Of Counsel

The Connective (Virtual Office) | 423.209.4154 | rbarber@bakerdonelson.com
Chattanooga | 423.756.2010

Robin Barber is a member of the Health Law Group and has extensive experience as in-house general counsel for senior living facilities.

Ms. Barber brings her clients senior living provider experience in establishing and leading in-house legal and risk management departments. Her background includes corporate governance; sale-leaseback transactions; joint ventures, mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, management agreements, and operations transfers; secured and unsecured financing; corporate and financial restructurings; multi-state health care licensing and regulatory requirements for senior living facilities; and complex contract negotiations. Ms. Barber also has experience with senior living insurance and risk management matters.

Education

- Widener University School of Law, J.D., 1992
- Pennsylvania State University, B.S., 1987

Admissions

- Pennsylvania, 1993
- District of Columbia, 1995 (inactive)

* Baker Donelson professional admitted to the practice of law in Pennsylvania; not admitted to the Tennessee bar.