

Kim Randolph

Attorney

Raleigh/Research Triangle | 984.844.7903 | krandolph@bakerdonelson.com

Kim Randolph is an attorney in Baker Donelson's Raleigh office and a member of the Health Law Group.

Ms. Randolph is highly experienced in advising clients on Certificate of Need (CON), Medicaid enrollment and contract matters, hospital, health service and behavioral health licensure, regulation and compliance issues, and transactional matters.

Prior to joining Baker Donelson, Ms. Randolph served as assistant general counsel for the Department of Health and Human Services focusing on CON and Medicaid contracting. She also previously served as assistant attorney general at the Department of Justice representing the Division of Health Service Regulation. Ms. Randolph's wealth of industry knowledge and experience bolster her ability to serve as a true, trusted advisor to clients of all sizes.

Publications

- "Temporary Regulatory Relief for North Carolina Health Care Providers Responding to Helene" (October 2024)

Education

- North Carolina Central University School of Law, J.D., 2011, magna cum laude
- Susquehanna University, B.A., 1983

Admissions

- North Carolina, 2011