Timothy "Tim" McHale, an associate located in the Firm's Metropark (Iselin), New Jersey office, focuses his practice on corporate transactions and governance.

Mr. McHale is a strategic legal advisor to companies across the business lifecycle, from startups to global enterprises, offering sophisticated counsel on mergers and acquisitions, venture financing, and general corporate matters. With a strong track record of closing complex transactions, he guides clients through every phase of the deal process, including due diligence, structuring, negotiation, and post-closing integration.

Mr. McHale has significant experience representing clients in the health care, technology, and venture capital sectors. He regularly advises on capital raising strategies, equity and debt financings, and a wide range of transactional agreements, including stock and asset purchase agreements, joint ventures, and buy/sell arrangements.

In addition to transactional work, Mr. McHale drafts and negotiates key corporate documents such as shareholder agreements, voting agreements, convertible notes, and operating agreements, ensuring legal protections for businesses of all sizes.
