Natalie Moszczynski is a skilled health law associate in Baker Donelson's Metropark (Iselin), New Jersey office, offering invaluable guidance to clients in the health care, life sciences, and cannabis industries.

Ms. Moszczynski plays a crucial role in supporting physicians and organizations within the health care and life sciences sectors, offering guidance across corporate, transactional, and regulatory challenges. She manages a range of corporate issues, including mergers, acquisitions, and the sale of medical practices, pharmaceutical firms, physical therapy centers, and pharmacies. From initial negotiations and due diligence to finalizing transactions, Ms. Moszczynski ensures smooth and compliant deal closures. She also provides counsel on health care transactions, ensuring they align with federal regulations such as the Stark Law, Anti-Kickback Statute, and various state-specific self-referral and anti-kickback laws.

Beyond her corporate and health care focus, Ms. Moszczynski advises both emerging companies and established multistate operators on regulatory and licensure compliance in the cannabis industry, especially in states where cannabis is legalized. She also assists with navigating the complexities of mergers and acquisitions in this rapidly evolving sector.

Prior to her legal career, Ms. Moszczynski gained valuable experience as an intern under the Honorable Judge Stephen L. Petrillo in the Civil Division of the Superior Court of New Jersey.
