Associate

New Orleans | 504.566.5253 | tmosby@bakerdonelson.com

Trevor Mosby is an associate in Baker Donelson's New Orleans office and a member of the Corporate Restructuring and Bankruptcy Group.

With a focus on creditors' rights, Trevor advocates for secured and unsecured lenders in bankruptcies, receiverships, foreclosures, loan workouts and restructurings, and collection litigation, both in and outside of formal proceedings. Additionally, he represents individuals and businesses in commercial litigation and real estate disputes.

Trevor has led financial institutions and nontraditional lenders in negotiating creative workout arrangements with borrowers to resolve distressed commercial lending relationships, and he regularly advocates to protect clients' rights in bankruptcy matters, including Chapter 11 reorganizations. He has extensive experience handling litigation involving complex loan agreements and foreclosing on lender collateral.

Trevor negotiates and prepares loan documents for commercial real estate transactions and other asset-based lending deals. He also advises on issues involving property title, corporate authority, and due diligence.

After law school, Trevor served as a judicial law clerk for Judge Monique F. Rauls of the 9th Judicial District Court. While attending law school, he served as a judicial intern for Judge Douglas D. Dodd of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Louisiana.

Representative Matters

- Successfully represented a large utility company in negotiating the voluntary dismissal of a Chapter 11 adversary action that alleged the utility company had received more than $200,000 in prepetition preferential transfers of a debtor's assets.
- Secured a settlement in the defense of a global parts manufacturer during negotiations of a dispute exceeding $700,000 in debt challenged by a Chapter 11 debtor, resulting in the full payment of the debt.
- Represented a lender as senior lienholder in a Chapter 11 bankruptcy action. Negotiated a favorable loan workout with additional collateral for the lender and the voluntary dismissal of the debtor's Chapter 11 case.
- Provided counsel to a multinational bank regarding its acquisition of a portfolio of residential mortgages under active bankruptcy proceedings and advised on matters pertaining to loan performance and lien rights.
- Obtained summary judgment for a national bank, dismissing a commercial borrower's claims of breach of fiduciary duty and negligent mishandling of insurance proceeds.
- Defended a regional bank against claims challenging its security rights in property damage insurance proceeds.
- Secured terminations of the automatic stay for a national storage rental company in consumer and business bankruptcy proceedings, despite objections by debtors.
