

Cole Beaubouef

Shareholder

Metropark (Iselin) | 973.241.3822 | cbeaubouef@bakerdonelson.com

Cole Beaubouef is a seasoned investment management attorney who counsels fund managers, institutional investors, and financial firms on complex fund structuring, regulatory compliance, and strategic transactions.

Cole Beaubouef is an experienced investment management attorney who advises clients on all aspects of their businesses. He has a strong track record of structuring private equity, hedge, venture capital, multi-strategy, distressed debt, and real estate funds, as well as other investment vehicles. Cole represents U.S. and non-U.S. private fund managers, investment advisers, broker-dealers, commodity pool operators, and commodity trading advisors in fund formation and structuring, regulatory compliance, co-investments, secondaries, and mergers and acquisitions.

Cole regularly advises clients on Securities Act, Securities Exchange Act, Investment Advisers Act, Investment Company Act, and Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) regulatory compliance, and assists clients in implementing effective compliance programs. Cole also represents institutional investors and family offices in private fund investments, co-investments, and joint ventures with leading fund managers.

Publications

- "SEC Looks to Increase "Qualified Client" Thresholds for Performance-Based Compensation" (March 2026)
- "A Potential Turning Point in Crypto Regulation: SEC–CFTC Joint Interpretation Caps a Decade of Shifting SEC Policy" (March 2026)
- "Regulation S-P: June 3, 2026 Compliance Deadline for Smaller Investment Advisers," republished March 31, 2026, in Corporate Compliance Insights (February 2026)

Education

- Brooklyn Law School, J.D., 2005 Associate
 - Managing Editor – Brooklyn Journal of International Law
- New York University, B.A., 1998, cum laude

Admissions

- New Jersey
- New York