Katharine Ello, an associate in the Firm's Princeton office, is a member of the Health Care Litigation Group. Her practice focuses on civil litigation, including medical malpractice and insurance defense matters.

Katharine represents clients throughout all stages of litigation, including discovery, motion practice, depositions, and court appearances. Her experience includes drafting and responding to written discovery; preparing dispositive motions and motions in limine; managing expert discovery; and appearing in court for case management conferences and oral arguments.

Prior to private practice, Katharine served as a law clerk to the Honorable Rosemary E. Ramsay, P.J.Cv. (Ret.), of the Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division, where she gained extensive experience in civil procedure, legal research, and judicial decision-making.
