

NEWS

Anne Turner Quoted in Mississippi Business Journal on Helping Her Client Obtain a Patent

In this Mississippi Business Journal article, Anne Turner discusses how she is helping her client, Monroe Jackson, obtain a patent for his string-free apron.

"Monroe has a pretty good position at this time," Ms. Turner said, and noted he is awaiting word on an application for a "utility" patent that would give Jackson exclusive use of the combination of features of the apron, not just its design.

Read the Article