

PRESS RELEASE

Spencer Wolf Joins Baker Donelson

August 26, 2013

(Washington, D.C. / August 26, 2013) Baker Donelson announces the addition of Spencer Wolf to the Firm's Washington, D.C. office.

Mr. Wolf joins as an advisor in Baker Donelson's Government Relations & Public Policy Group, where he assists his clients on national security policy in both the public and private sectors. A 2012 magna cum laude graduate of George Mason University, Mr. Wolf previously worked as a district coordinator on two Congressional campaigns. He interned for Senator Kent Conrad for four years and was subsequently hired by Senator Conrad as a legislative correspondent, where he handled a diverse portfolio of issues including appropriations, banking, housing, transportation and small business.