

PRESS RELEASE

Eddy Pratt Elected to East Tennessee Historical Society Board of Directors

August 31, 2016

(Knoxville, TN / August 31, 2016) Eddy Pratt has been elected to the East Tennessee Historical Society's (ETHS) Board of Directors for a three-year term.

Established in 1834, the ETHS is one of the most active private historical organizations in Tennessee and has 45 affiliate chapters across the region. The organization's mission is to preserve, promote and interpret the history of Tennessee, with a focus on East Tennessee's distinct history, heritage and geography.

A shareholder in Baker Donelson's Knoxville office, Mr. Pratt concentrates his practice in the area of litigation with a focus on personal injury defense in transportation and products liability; construction; and general commercial disputes. He has been city attorney for the city of Norris since 1989.
