

PRESS RELEASE

Baker Donelson Attorneys Named "IP Stars" in Managing Intellectual Property's 2019 IP Handbook

June 24, 2019

Three Baker Donelson attorneys have been named "IP Stars" in the 2019 edition of Managing Intellectual Property's IP Handbook, an annual publication recognizing leading law firms and lawyers in intellectual property.

The IP Handbook also listed Baker Donelson as "highly recommended" in Tennessee and as "recommended" in Maryland for its intellectual property work, citing patent and prosecution work, IPRs and transactions, as well as experience in litigation.

The Baker Donelson attorneys listed as "IP Stars" in the 2019 edition of the IP Handbook are:

- Bruce C. Doeg (Nashville) – Patent Star
- E. Scott Johnson (Baltimore) – Trademark Star
- Bradley E. Trammell (Memphis) – Patent Star and Trademark Star

The "IP Stars" list is based on extensive research conducted by a team compiling market feedback and independent information. Individuals included on the list are practitioners with long-established practices and clients in the industry.

Baker Donelson's Intellectual Property Group is responsible for the protection of inventions and other forms of intellectual property for clients ranging from start-ups to Fortune 500 companies. They obtain, defend and enforce patents, trademarks, copyrights and trade secrets in the United States and throughout the world. The Firm has developed relationships with intellectual property lawyers in many major foreign countries, and has facilitated applications, patents and registrations of trademarks in more than 80 foreign jurisdictions.
