

PRESS RELEASE

Baker Donelson's Angie Davis Inducted as Fellow of the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers

November 21, 2019

Baker Donelson attorney Angie Davis was inducted as a Fellow of the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers at the 24th Annual Induction Dinner on November 9, 2019 in New Orleans, Louisiana, coincident with the American Bar Association's Labor and Employment Law Section's Continuing Legal Education Conference. With the current installation, the College is represented by more than 1,400 members in 46 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and eight Canadian Provinces.

The College was the vision of a number of the Fellows. The idea was to further establish this profession in all its aspects as one uniquely important to the world of labor and employment law, individual rights, collective bargaining and dispute resolution. The College was established in 1995 through an initiative of the Council of The Section of Labor and Employment Law of the American Bar Association. It operates as a free-standing organization recognizing those who, by long and outstanding service, have distinguished themselves as leaders in the field.

Ms. Davis is a shareholder in Baker Donelson's Memphis office and vice chair of the Firm's Labor & Employment Group. Her practice is focused on representing companies in all aspects of employment law including litigation, representation before state and federal agencies, advice and counseling, training and drafting employment related policies and contracts. Since 2009, Ms. Davis has been listed in Mid-South Super Lawyers and has been recognized among the publication's lists of top 50 female attorneys, top 50 Memphis attorneys and top 100 Tennessee attorneys. She has also been recognized in Chambers USA since 2016 as a leading practitioner in Labor & Employment Law in Tennessee, has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America® since 2011, and was named the Best Lawyers® 2019 Memphis Employment Law – Management "Lawyer of the Year". Ms. Davis is a member of the Memphis, Tennessee and American Bar Associations (Equal Employment Opportunity Committee) as well as the Association of Women Attorneys.
