

PRESS RELEASE

Baker Donelson's Craig C. Conley Becomes Rule 31 Listed General Civil Mediator

October 21, 2022

Baker Donelson attorney Craig C. Conley has become a Rule 31 Listed General Civil Mediator for the state of Tennessee.

As a Rule 31 Listed General Civil Mediator, Mr. Conley is able to serve as a neutral party who assists in the resolution of disputes through a voluntary settlement process that is less costly, time-consuming, and adversarial than litigation.

A shareholder in Baker Donelson's Memphis office, Mr. Conley is a member of the Firm's Health Care Litigation Group. He has significant experience in litigation in a variety of areas, with an emphasis in health care litigation involving hospitals, long-term care facilities, physicians, nurses, and other health care providers. He is also experienced in health care regulatory matters, including issues involving federal and state regulations and licensing, survey, and certification.

Mr. Conley has been recognized in The Best Lawyers in America[®] and was named the Best Lawyers' 2021 Memphis Health Care Litigation "Lawyer of the Year." He was named to the 2022 Lawdragon 500 Leading Litigators in America and is listed in Mid-South Super Lawyers, which has recognized him as one of the top 100 Tennessee attorneys and top 50 Memphis attorneys. A graduate of the University of Memphis Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law, Mr. Conley is a member of the American Health Law Association and the Association of Corporate Counsel, as well as the Memphis and Tennessee Bar Associations. He is also a Fellow of the Memphis Bar Foundation.